

Club Position Meeting Minutes 7/13/18

- Hello and welcome
- Introduce all
- Council retreat
  - Pops theme – American Graffiti (American Music History)
  - Council shirts
  - Decorate walls
  - Time for you to sit down and introduce
  - Go over gmails
  - Set up communication
- Gmails
  - How To Documents
  - Council Calendar in the google calendar
  - Use for sharing and storing files
- Communicate with your council!
  - Make sure you have everyone numbers
  - Let them know what you expect out of them
  - Talk about your goals for the year
  - Talk about how you can get started on your jobs ASAP and be on the ball
- Lead games!
  - Jackie and Brooke
  - Adam and Abby and Hannah
  - Tia and Ceci
  - Heidi and Ellie
  - I'll be doing the main introduce yourself games so maybe just fun games like
    - The game Zach and Parker did last year (get to know you for like 30 seconds then ask a question)
    - Telestrations
- The purpose of choir council
  - Help behind the scenes
  - Make better program overall
  - Not about recognition
  - Create family environment
  - Makes us official and make everyone take us seriously
  - Our mission: make sure that everyone who walks in the door feels welcome and included. Its councils mission to embody that so students can let down their guard
  - Not everyone is outgoing as us. We need to include them!
  - Don't feel bad if they aren't as involved. Everyone is important.
  - We have to embody what we want choir to be
  - Everyone is on the same level. People not on council are just as important
- The purpose of council retreat
  - One of the best parts of the year
  - To get to know everyone and feel welcome

- Set the tone
- Break down our purpose of why we're here
- Get comfortable so we can work together
- Stepping outside of normal friends. A good trial run to learn how to step up and out
- As leaders, what should we embody?
- What I expect from you guys
  - Embody what the choir program stands for
  - Be a leader in all aspects: you can be a silent leader, or take charge of a situation. Reminding people of what they should be doing in class and knowing when to step back. Participating in fundraisers and spirit days and the whole 9 yards. Being a great leader is doing what's expected of you and 1000x more than that
  - Reach out to people you don't know and make them feel included
  - Be enthusiastic about everything, even things you cannot change! As long as you stay positive others will follow
  - Be as efficient as possible and get the work done! Don't procrastinate!
  - Cliques
  - Embody all the things we just talked about
  - My eyes and ears
  - Have integrity!
  - Be communicative and don't drop off the face. IF theres a student that does, make sure they come back.
- Written contract
  - If they didn't do work they didn't feel consequence
- Snapchat group chat, text group chat, constant communication
- Wall Deco
  - Media replacing "Welcome to Choir"
  - Historian walls remains + both corner walls. Polorid and ken brown pics.
  - Spirit Wall where
  - Uniform wall: a student contact wall on the glass
  - Presidents bday and sotm wall remains
  - VPs still update that wall and also letter points wall
  - Treasurers on the big wall with debts
  - Embrace our back, brick wall for graffiti
  - Redo "the Cave." "Library" sign. list of student's numbers. A bin for late music.
  - Fundraising wall next to calendar
- Overall Cds Council Gmail
- Tia knows yearbook and cdstv people! Talk to naomi!